SPORTS

Nearly five thousand men, women and children were present in and around the old Fishmarket last night to witness the boxing matches which had been arranged by the Sports committee. The first number of the evening was a tug-of-war between the two teams which pulled to a draw Saturday night. Both teams were well matched last night and during the pulling the crowd cheered lustily. The pull finally going to the Honolulu team. The other two numbers on the program were six round bouts which ended in draws. The first go between Ernest Heine and Kid Cabral was of a lively nature, but Heine seemed to be less willing to mix than he has been in his previous fights with Cabral.

The second go between McFadden and Young Nelson was amusing and that was all, the bout appearing to be all out and dried as to the outcome. During both bouts the men seemed to be playing and not in earnest, as Heine could have knocked Cabral out if he had only followed up his chances, and McFadden could easily have put Nelson out if he wanted to do so. It may be right enough to box the way they did, but some people who attend boxing matches are anxious to see more real work than the kind presented last night. One Naval officer who was present last night declared the two bouts the rankest fakes he had ever seen.

There is some talk of a yacht race around the island for the four yachts that took part in the recent trans-Pacific race, and the other local first class yachts. This should be a very exciting race, and it is to be hoped that arrangements can be made so that the race will be assured.

Two fast games of baseball are scheduled for Saturday afternoon at the League grounds, and no doubt a large crowd will be on hand to cheer for their favorites. Punahou and St. Louis will line up for the first game, being the postponed game in the first series. Kelo and Santa Clara will play the second game. In the event of the Pons winning they will play the first game on Sunday against the Diamond Heads for the championship of the first series. The second game Sunday will be Kelo vs. Santa Clara.

The International series has been a great success so far, as far as crowds are concerned, but there is still room for improvement in the playing of the local team. The Kelos play a good team game, but they are weak with the stick and lack a good pitcher. The Santa Claras have braced up since the first games and are now playing good fast ball. It is quite possible that the schedule will be lengthened two or three weeks, and if it is, some good games will no doubt be the order of events.

The trustees of the league and the president, Paul Isenberg, deserve great credit for making it possible to have visiting teams here, and it is up to the Honolulu public to patronize the games as they have done the last two weeks.

There will be no tug-of-war wrestling tonight at the Fishmarket arena. It has been found that the sailors

FINDS FORTUNE IN WIFE'S OLD DRESS

OAKLAND PIONEER, SORTING CLOTHES OF DEAD SPOUSE, DISCOVERS BANK ACCOUNT.

OAKLAND, Cal., July 10.—Recently searching an old dress belonging to his late wife, Mary E. Smyth, Samuel Smyth, a pioneer resident of Oakland, discovered two bank books showing deposits amounting to more than $27,000 in two Oakland banks. Mrs. Smyth died last March, but the widower has just now discovered the fortune which his spouse covertly accumulated. The money will be transferred to Smyth by the two banks.

In 1871 Samuel Smyth and his wife were married. She was a widow and owned property on Tenth street, between Broadway and Franklin street. In order to improve the property, Smyth saved his earnings, giving them to the care of his wife, and later mortgaged the property to pay for the construction of a brick building. In time the mortgage was paid off and the wife quietly commenced saving money. On her death the real estate was transferred to Smyth and is valued at $40,000 while there was a joint bank account of $2,000 in a local institution.

It was only the other day when Smyth was looking over some of his wife's former dresses that he discovered the two bank books. Even then he was not sure of their value. Finally he inquired at the banks mentioned and was surprised to learn that a fortune of some $27,000 awaited him. The entries in the bank books commenced seven and thirteen years after the couple were married.

WORK ON FOUR ARMORED CRUISERS TO BE RUSHED

West Virginia, Maryland, South Dakota and California to Have Fire-Control Systems.

VALLEJO, July 9.—In addition to the large force of men that has been maintained at Mare Island, the Board of Labor has issued cards for 1200 men in order that the work of installing the new fire-control systems on the four armored cruisers, West Virginia, ora prefer boxing to other sports. The events will be as follows:

1. Howe vs. Tilman.
2. Fredericks vs. Bennett.
3. Murphy vs. Platt—Fort Shafter men.

4. Alterie vs. Demon Silva.
P. P. Ryan will referee all bouts. Lieut. Weaver, fleet athletic officer, has shown a great deal of interest in the Fishmarket bouts, having been present at every event so far. He has also displayed every courtesy toward the Sports committee, including the furnishing of a warship band each evening, and a different one each time.

The Kanai polo team in a well played game from start to finish, easily defeated the Oahu team yesterday afternoon at Kapiolani Park by the one-sided score of 63 to 1. Oahu never had a chance to take the game, although they played brilliantly at times. The only score made by the home team was made by Walter Dillingham in the second period. All the local team played for all that was in the game, but their rivals were too strong in the fine points of the game. The crowd was not what it should have been, but the numerous other attractions may have made some difference. The line-up of the teams was as follows:

Kanai—A. Rice, No. 1; J. Malina, No. 2; C. A. Rice, No. 3; C. A. Dole, No. 4.
Oahu—George Angus, No. 1; G. P. Denison, No. 2; Walter Dillingham, No. 3; J. Fleming, No. 4.

Two good boxing matches will be held at Independence Hall this evening, the events being a 25-round go between Mike Patton and Sailor Schlossberg for a side bet of $500, and a six-round go between Bill Huihui and Prendergast of the U. S. S. New Jersey. Two other numbers on the program which should prove very interesting are wrestling matches between Sailor Roberts and Faber, and Roberts and Charlesworth.

Nigel Jackson's deft to box any 120-pound man in the Territory has been taken up by Ernest Heine. They will probably box on August 8 at Independence Hall.

Sunrise and Leahi Girl will probably race on Saturday afternoon at Kapiolani Park.

The second polo game between Kanai and Oahu will be played tomorrow afternoon at Kapiolani Park commencing at 3 o'clock.

Kid McCullough and Kid Crawford will probably be seen in the squared arena in a few weeks, as McCullough accepted Crawford's deft yesterday to box at 135 pounds.

HATPIN STABS OTIS SKINNER

ACTOR TURNS ACROBAT WHEN PIN ON PICTURE HAT PIERCES HIS CHAIR.

LONDON, July 9.—Otis Skinner was stabbed in the back in the parquette of the Empire Theater Tuesday night, not fatally, but painfully.

The actor and his wife entered the theater just before the curtain rose and sat down a few seats in front of where Frank Morris of Chicago was sitting with his wife. Shortly afterward an English woman, wearing a big picture hat, took a seat immediately behind Mr. Skinner and proceeded to remove her colossal head-gear.

The next minute Mr. and Mrs. Morris were astounded to see Mr. Skinner jump about four feet high and let out a war whoop. The English woman had thrust a long hatpin through a chair into the man's back.

"It was hard to tell," said Mr. Morris, "who was in a greater state of excitement, Mr. Skinner or the woman. Certainly the latter was slightly scared. The gallant Skinner hastened to minimize his pain. He sat the show out, but got out before I could congratulate him on his high jump. I'm writing him to join the Olympic high jumpers."

Maryland, South Dakota and California, may be rushed to completion before the Pacific fleet sails for Samoa on August 24th.

The three first-named vessels are now here, the West Virginia and Maryland work being well along. The California is to arrive within a couple of days and the work on that vessel and the South Dakota will be rushed in conjunction with the other two.

The original orders called for the work on the South Dakota and California to be taken up after their return from Samoa, and it is now supposed that their absence is to be of longer duration than was first thought.

FOR DISBARMENT OF JUDGE DUNNE

Petition Filed in The Supreme Court of California by San Jose Attorney.

ALLEGED MENACE TO LIBERTY.

The Petition Pillories Jurist For His Criticism of The Appellate Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Five minutes before the Supreme Court adjourned yesterday a voluminous petition praying for the disbarment of Frank H. Dunne, Judge of the Superior Court, was placed on record. The petition is drawn by Attorney E. E. Cottrhan of San Jose, acting for Attorney Charles J. Pence, a lawyer with offices in the Monadnock building, who, as accuser, charges Judge Dunne with disrespectful criticism of the Justices of the Appellate Court.

The petition covers thirty-seven typewritten pages. Last night neither Attorney Pence, nor Attorney Cottrhan would enter into any discussion of the motives which prompted its presentation.

DUNNE HEARS OF PETITION.

When Judge Dunne was informed of the filing of the petition he said: "This is the first intimation I have had that any petition was filed or contemplated. Not having had time to study the petition, I feel it would not be proper for me to discuss it at this time. When the proper time comes I may have something to say."

E. E. Cottrhan, the attorney of San Jose, in an interview at the Fairmont Hotel, said: "The complaint speaks for itself. The most important clause in the complaint recites the fact that Judge Dunne on the bench has discussed on several occasions the cases pending. This is not a matter of gossip or hearsay, but public record. At this time I do not care to discuss the case. The Supreme Court has the right to either cite Judge Dunne to appear before it or dismiss the case."

"Judge Dunne I do not know personally, nor would I know him if I met him on the street. Attorney Pence reported to me certain facts which I decided had better be decided by the Supreme Court. That body has the case before it, and it would be unprofessional and indelicate for me to discuss it at this time."

DUNNE'S STATEMENTS QUOTED.

"Points and Authorities of the Accuser" is the heading under which Attorney Cottrhan leads off on behalf of his client, Attorney Pence; and at the outset Judge Dunne is pilloried for the interviews he gave out on the District Appellate Court's decision freeing Schmitz on the ground that the indictment in the extortion cases did not constitute a public offense.

Particular emphasis is laid on Judge Dunne's criticisms on the District Appellate Court, while the case it had just decided was still a matter for litigation and still "sub judice" in the sense that it yet had to come before the State Supreme Court.

The petition describes Judge Dunne's interviews as "animated by motives of malice or interest" in rendering a decision; also as "not in a proper frame of mind" to decide the matter impartially and because of having relatives indicted by the Grand Jury.

In his position of accuser of Judge Dunne, Pence declares in his petition that interviews were given out by Dunne for the purpose and intent of subjecting the District Court of Appeals to public hatred, odium, contumely and contempt; also to intimidate and improperly influence the judges of the District Court of Appeals. Further that Dunne falsely impugned the honor, dignity and integrity of the judges of the District Court of Appeals.

SAYS VIOLATED OATH.

By so doing, Dunne was guilty of violating his oath as an attorney, is the declaration of Pence in his petition. The petition is also based on the assertion that a court utterance of Judge Dunne on March 14 was intended to convey the meaning that the Supreme Court of California had made a decision for the purpose of favoring Abraham Ruef. This, Attorney Pence further maintains, was uttered for the purpose of falsely and maliciously maligning and imputing dishonor to and corruption of the Supreme Court of this State.

In conclusion, Attorney Pence disclaims all personal interest and declares he has no apology to make for attempting to perform what he considers his duty, and an obligation of transcendent importance to society, for the security of life, liberty and property.

EXTRACTS FROM PETITION.

Following is the text in part of the petition: This is a petition to disbar the respondent, Honorable Frank H. Dunne, of the city and county of San Francisco, State of California, as an attorney and counselor-at-law in the courts of this State. The petition is certified by Charles J. Pence, an attorney and counselor-at-law of this court, and engaged in the practice of law in San Francisco.

After the Justices of said District Court of Appeal had filed their opinion in said cause, and before the time had expired for an application by the prosecution for a rehearing in said court, and also before the application to this court for the hearing thereof the respondent, not sitting on the bench, uttered the following language concerning said cause, knowing that the same would be published in the press of San Francisco and throughout the United States, to wit:

"It seems to me, from reading the opinion, that the judge who wrote it thinks that I, and not the Grand Jury, was responsible for the indictment of his brother-in-law, Mr. Brobeck. The case was submitted yesterday and decided this morning in an opinion covering thirty-two typewritten pages. I am satisfied the opinion was written to protect Ruef instead of Schmitz, and to keep him from testifying against the friends and relatives of the judges of that court. I think the decision was hurried by my action in sending Ruef to jail. The fear was that he would there weaken and tell all he knew. There is no question of the sufficiency of that indictment. In rendering their decision against it the Appellate Court entirely ignored the two leading New York cases that have long governed the question at issue. Whoever before heard of a court discussing a case on its merits and reaching a conclusion, and then, as a tag or afterthought, decide that the indictment was defective; that the whole machinery of the lower court was wrongfully put in action? Such a method of decision seems childish and any court that indulges in such special pleading must be animated by motives of malice or interest. I believe that if I had had the power to appoint an ellor for that court and had been able to protect it from outside influence, it would have rendered a decision more in conformity with the law and the evidence. About the only thing the decision does not do is to advise Schmitz to sue Mayor Taylor for the back salary of the term of office of which Schmitz was deprived. The only pity is that we cannot get all the truth. It is of small consequence who is indicted or who convicted, so long as we can reach the exact truth. This decision seems to put a gag in the mouth of truth and to make it harder than ever to reach the facts. I firmly believe that the honest Grand Jury which returned that indictment and the honest trial jury which rendered the verdict will be remembered by a grateful community long after the names of the present judges of the Appellate Court have been lost and forgotten."

ATTACK ON GOVERNOR.

Honorable Frank H. Dunne knew, or ought to have known, that no man's life or liberty could be secure unless the principles laid down in the decision of the District Court of Appeals in the case mentioned are upheld. Reported that no man can be tried or imprisoned for a felony in the United States or in Great Britain upon an invalid indictment. Respondent knew that the right to a full and fair cross-examination of the witnesses against a defendant in this land is as old as the government. Respondent knew that the right and duty of an Appellate Court to determine finally what the law is in every case of which it has jurisdiction are sacred trusts derived from the people, and that he who arraigns the members of that Appellate Court with false accusations of corruption in office is attacking the sovereign government of the People themselves, and is a far more dangerous revolutionist than one who resorts to physical violence.

The members of the First District Court of Appeals and of this court must, in the course of nature and events change and pass, but the courts of the land must remain, if civilization endure. That all judges are not gifted with genius in the law, that all are liable to error in decision, is a hackneyed truism, but it is not so obvious to some persons that few judges are dishonest, and that no judge should be subjected to slander and libel and made a target for shafts of character-assassins. For the wrongdoer on the bench, the Constitution has provided a remedy, and for the incompetent judge the people have the ballot.

The excitement that surrounded the case alluded to in the petition may, and likely will, be paralleled in the future in some unexpected event, and the sooner the courts set an example against wanton and malicious aspersions by those who do not wish to abide by the law, the greater will the security of society be in all its enjoyments and rights.

The language used by respondent, Hon. Frank H. Dunne, if true, demands the impeachment of the member

HEALTH OFFICES

THE COFER CASE—DR. SINCLAIR HOLDS A BUNCH OF SALARIED POSITIONS.

A further move may soon be expected in the matter of the charges made against Dr. Cofer's holding the position of president of the Board of Health. Those behind Attorney Humphreys feel that they have been rather ill treated by the administration. Ostensibly Dr. Cofer has given up the position, but the claim is made that he is still acting as president of the Board with exactly as much authority as he had before the change.

Mark P. Robinson, it is claimed, is the president of the Board in name only, his chief work being to sign the letters which have been dictated by Dr. Cofer. The latter is seldom to be seen around the Board of Health office, but his name creates just as much respect as if he were there every minute of the day.

Another case which is analogous to that of Dr. Cofer, and in regard to which some action may be taken very soon, is that of Dr. Sinclair. With the large private practice which he has and the many jobs of official and semi-official character, it is felt that he is having a little too much of a shicure. Dr. Sinclair is at present the doctor of the Territorial dispensary for a short time each day, at $50 per month. His position as the physician at the Leahi Home brings him in $100 each month. It is said. He is what is known as an acting doctor of the Marine Hospital Corps, which means about another $100. His position as assistant to the president of the Board of Health also brings in the sum of $30. Besides this he holds the position of surgeon of the First Regiment, N. G. H.

It will be seen that Dr. Sinclair holds down several Territorial and Federal positions which bring him in the nice little salary of $300 and at the same time he has his private practice which takes up most of his time. The ground on which he will be attacked will be similar to that which was used against Dr. Cofer, that he has no right under the law to hold both a Federal office and a Territorial office at the same time.

Members of the First District Court of Appeals; on the other hand, if these justices are among the purest men in California, as counsel firmly believes them to be, then he who, from his exalted station of power on the Superior bench, has sought to publicly dishonor them, should himself be publicly dishonored.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.
